this week from Potters Bar!

A Lidl batching saves a lot. Not only has it saved our Batch from Scratch families money, but it's also freed up more time for them to spend together. It's a win-win!

Watch Joe Swash and Suzanne Mulholland, aka The Batch Lady, help six struggling households, who find mealtimes a daily battle. They analyse every meal eaten, every minute wasted, and every pound spent. Along with clever hacks and monthly meal plans, we see them successfully cut costs, save time, and create easy batch-cooked meals for the freezer – all from one Lidl shop a week!

Last week, with the help of Joe and Suzanne, The Oatleys from Port Talbot found a new love for quick, easy, healthy cooking and discovered that if they stick to Suzanne's plan for a whole year, they could save £4,570 and 313 hours in the kitchen

Episode 3 with The Shahs

Panna juggles her part-time job with running a busy home with 3 generations under one roof, and with each member wanting to eat different things, pleasing the family at mealtimes is a struggle. What's more, husband Bunty needs a low-fibre diet to manage his Crohn's Disease, so chooses ready meals and expensive takeaways. All-in-all, this multi-diet living is hitting their pockets and the amount of time Panna spends in the kitchen.

Watch Joe and Suzanne help Panna cook up easy, tasty meals to keep the whole family happy and teach Bunty how to make healthy, low-fibre alternatives to his takeaways. Their new-found cooking know-how means less mealtime stress and health worries and more time to spend altogether.
