FRESH QUALITY

ROOTED IN QUALITY: Farm Fresh Produce is the Backbone of your Autumn Dishes

In professional kitchens, consistency is everything. But behind every perfectly plated dish lies something even more essential: great ingredients. That's why at Booker, working hand-in-hand with the Tesco Group and our trusted grower partners, we make sure caterers always have access to fresh, reliable, and great-value produce.

The Unsung Heroes of the Plate

Forget the latest fad ingredient—when it comes to building flavour, it's the everyday veg that holds it all together. Potatoes, carrots, onions, parsnips, cabbages—humble heroes with endless versatility, broad customer appeal, and unbeatable value.

Handled with care, these staples deliver flavour, texture, and nutrition that elevate dishes across pubs, restaurants, schools, and care homes. They may not grab headlines, but they're the bedrock of British menus.

Why Quality Matters

Quality produce isn't just about taste—it's about efficiency and reliability. Fresher veg means:

- Less prep time, better yield
- Consistent performance in the kitchen
- Less food waste

That's why we work only with suppliers who share our values of traceability, consistency, and seasonality. From field to fork, our grower partners bring expertise, transparency, and year-round availability.

POTATOES: Britain's Comfort Classic

From golden roasts to silky mash, nothing says comfort like a well-cooked potato. But only the best spuds deliver consistent results and top-tier presentation.

Our supplier Branston Potatoes—born from a farmer co-op in 1968—handles over 375,000 tonnes a year and works with family farms across the UK and beyond. Their decades of expertise mean Booker customers always get the pick of the crop: potatoes you can depend on, however you serve them.

ROOT VEGETABLES: Seasonal Stars

Sweet, earthy, and deeply comforting, root veg shine in autumn and winter menus. Carrots, swedes, and parsnips add depth to roasts, soups, and stews, while also lending themselves beautifully to pickling, grating, and grilling.

Our grower Huntapac—farming since 1942—manages over 3,800 acres of root crops across the UK. Their clever growing rotation ensures uniformity, shelf life, and minimal waste—vital for kitchens managing tight margins.

ONIONS: The Flavour Foundation

Stocks, sauces, stir-fries, salads—onions are at the heart of them all. And quality matters. Firm, clean, and perfectly stored onions deliver the right balance of sweetness and pungency every time.

Our partner Stourgarten has been growing onions since 1968 and now handles 75,000 tonnes annually. From British crops to Spanish imports, they guarantee year-round supply, perfectly graded for size and consistency.

FRESH QUALITY

BRASSICAS: Bold, Nutritious, Versatile

Brassicas have moved from sides to star attractions. Think roasted cauliflower steaks, charred sprout salads, or kimchi fermentations. Bursting with colour, crunch, and nutrition, they're a chef's dream.

Our supplier T H Clements, a third-generation family business, grows premium brassicas across Lincolnshire and Cornwall, with Spanish partnerships to keep supply flowing all winter long.

FINAL THOUGHT: Invest in the Basics

Food trends may change, but quality fruit and veg never go out of style. Potatoes, roots, onions, brassicas — they're the cornerstones of reliable, cost-effective, flavour-packed menus.

Because at the end of the day, great food starts with great ingredients.

Freshness You Can Trust

Our trained Greengrocers are always on hand in-branch to offer advice and make sure you get exactly what you need, when you need it.
